Letter of Student Conduct: Zahraa Schroeder

To Whom It May Concern

I'm rarely in a position to write a glowing testimonial. I'm honored to write a letter of the highest recommendation for Zahraa Schroeder. Zahraa's academic record bears testimony to both her strong work ethic and determination. In my time being Zahraa's lecturer I have observed her as an engaged and enthusiastic learner with thoughtful and reflective insights.

Many times students are evaluated solely on the basis of the kind of answers that they provide. My pedagogy is an interpretive method and it is particularly concerned with the kind of questions that students ask. Zahraa is the kind of student who ask questions that speak to her natural ability to critically and creatively engage with the world around her.

Zahraa is deserving of the opportunity available at your institution since her academic, extra-curricular engagement, determination, work ethic, and discipline speak volumes about her character. Zahraa is no doubt a solid candidate however, it is her ability to find practical relevance of her studies and to reflect critically on her own learning experiences that truly sets her head and shoulders above candidates of a similar caliber. Therefore, without reservation I recommend Zahraa Schroeder for the aforementioned position that she will honor and make the most of the opportunities provided and contribute to the work environment in an unparalleled and significant manner.

Yours Sincerely,

R. Adams
